

CALL FOR INITIATIVES AND PROJECTS

Dear Colleagues,

The ENRLMM is currently building a BIG DATA KNOWLEDGE HUB which will serve all network members as a platform to obtain information on the use, topics and techniques related to big data used in labour market monitoring, as well as to connect the members and experts with each other.

In order to nourish the HUB, we are currently collecting information on the initiatives and projects you have worked on. For this purpose, we kindly ask all ENRLMM members with experience in the use of Big Data for labour market monitoring to describe the specific projects you have worked on.

The information you provide is directly uploaded to the ENRLMM Big Data Knowledge Hub. The Hub will only be accessed by ENRLMM members for research and good practice exchange purposes exclusively, and never for commercial purposes. When the information you facilitate is used by any member in any paper or study, your work will be referenced accordingly.

To upload your experiences in the HUB, please use this link: <https://bigdatahub.uvt.ro>. Please take into account that the request sent in December's Newsletter is outdated and now only this link is relevant.

- You will first need to register for the use of the BIG DATA KNOWLEDGE HUB.
- Then, you will be able to fill in the fields to describe your project.
- And finally you will publish it for it to appear on the Hub (at this stage of Hub's development, all published materials will be available only for registered members).

A tutorial with steps necessary to be employed for uploading materials is attached to this call.

Since we are still in a beta version, if you encounter any technical problems in the process, please contact Ciprian Panzaru (ciprian.panzaru@e-uvt.ro). The coordinator of the Big Data Working Group, Eugenia Atin, will be on leave until September 2021, so please, for any other questions, get in touch with Christa Larsen (c.larsen@em.uni-frankfurt.de).

The Big Data Working Group thanks you very much for your support.

With best wishes,

Ciprian Panzaru and Christa Larsen
